

The Centre for Engaged Inclusion Comment Card

The Centre for Engaged Inclusion engages the campus and Lansing area in building an equitable and inclusive community through intellectual exploration and collaboration. We envision a community where everyone has a sense of belonging and possibility, and is empowered to cultivate an equitable world.

We welcome any comment and/or suggestions for improving your experience at the Centre. Please fill out the box below.

Contact Information optional